

MEDIA RELEASE

For immediate release
July 27, 2009

ANNAPOLIS COUNTY WELCOMES NEW BYLAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

ANNAPOLIS CO. – The Municipality of the County of Annapolis is very pleased to introduce Mr. Daniel Cress as the new Bylaw Enforcement Officer for the County of Annapolis.

Daniel is originally from the area having grown up in Round Hill; but, until recently, has been living in Bridgewater. Presently, he has returned with his wife and children to his home community.

Although Daniel grew up farming, he admits he soon realized his interest was in law enforcement and emergency services. He has spent the past 16 years working in the field of security, and he is a dedicated volunteer for the Annapolis Royal Volunteer Fire Department.

Daniel is taking over the Bylaw Enforcement Officer position from Mr. Ron Sabeau who recently retired after 30 years of service with the County of Annapolis.

“Ron was a very dedicated employee who took his job responsibilities seriously, he is well-deserving of his retirement,” said Annapolis County Warden Peter Newton. “We were very fortunate to find someone with Daniel’s background and experience to take Ron’s place. We feel confident that Daniel will be able to fulfill the duties and responsibilities required in bylaw enforcement and animal control. He has already proven to be up to the task.”

If anyone has a bylaw enforcement or animal control issue they can contact Daniel at (902) 532-8407.

- 30 -

Media Contact: Warden Peter Newton
(902) 532-3137

For Broadcast Use:

The Municipality of the County of Annapolis is very pleased to introduce Mr. Daniel Cress as the new Bylaw Enforcement Officer for the County of Annapolis.

Daniel is originally from the area having grown up in Round Hill; but, until recently has been living in Bridgewater. He has spent the past 16 years working in the field of security, and he is a dedicated volunteer for the Annapolis Royal Volunteer Fire Department.

Daniel is taking over the Bylaw Enforcement Officer position from Mr. Ron Sabeau who recently retired after 30 years of service with the County of Annapolis.

If anyone has a bylaw enforcement or animal control issue they can contact Daniel at (902) 532-8407.

